

Kristi A. O'Dell

January 8, 2015

Kristi A. O'Dell Levin, age 66, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother passed away peacefully on January 8 following a lengthy battle with heart disease. A military wife, she was an ardent supporter of her husband's military career while working in various administrative positions both overseas and in San Antonio, most recently at UTHSCSA School of Nursing from which she retired in 2004 following cardiac arrest. She is preceded in death by her father William Levin, grandparents Max and Dulcie Levin all of Tracy California and grandparents Julius and Esther Johnson of Mendocino California. Survivors include her loving husband of 47 years, Darrell "Digger" O'Dell, daughter Lori Franckowiak and son-in-law Thomas of Converse TX, daughter Lisa Ghavidel and son-in-law Robert of Mico TX, beloved grandsons Noah and Aaron Ghavidel, mother Karen Levin of Tracy California, and sister Ronni Levin of Whidbey Island Washington. She is also survived by an aunt and cousins in California. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Heart Association or the UTHSCSA School of Nursing. A Visitation will be held from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM on Sunday, January 11, 2015 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.
