KOTARA

Lambert S. Kotara passed away on Tuesday, January 17, 2012, at the age of 84. He was born and raised near Cestohowa in Karnes County, Texas. A graduate of St. Mary's University with degrees in physics and math. Lambert was a modest man who worked as a computer systems analyst at the beginning of the computer era, writing cutting edge business software programs. Upon retirement from the Dairy Farmers of America, Lambert enjoyed watching football-he was a huge Cowboys fan, continuing the family tradition of farming, gardening and even fighting those pesky gophers and deer. Family time was precious to Lambert, who, together with his beloved wife of 60 years, Florence, had 5 children, 8 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Mr. Kotara was preceded in death by his son, Russell; sister, Theresa; and brother, Archie. He is no doubt happy to see each of them again, and is smiling down on the family he loved so dearly. He is survived by his loving wife, Florence; daughters, Yvonne and husband, Donny, Joyce and husband, Joe; sons, John and wife, Mary, Steve and wife, Debbie; along with each of their families. Lambert's quiet demeanor and warm smile will be greatly missed.
