

Landon Carter Penn

April 26, 1952 - November 11, 2015

Landon Carter Penn, 63

Former San Antonio/Bulverde resident Landon "Don" Penn died on 11/11/15 in Houston, Texas with his family by his side.

At his request, funeral service will be held graveside on Monday 11/16/15 at 11:00 am.

Don was born in San Antonio Texas, on April 26th, 1952 to L.C. and Katharine Penn. He was the youngest of three. He grew up in San Antonio, and attended Edison High school. He accepted a full football scholarship to Tulane University where he played for two years. After transferring to Southwest Texas State University, he received his Bachelors in Business Administration and management. For over twenty years he sold paper to printing companies. He was involved with playing sports in his youth, and coaching them as a parent. Described as being "good at everything", Don was a devoted father and family man.

Don was preceded in death by his father L.C. 1962 and mother Kay 2000, as well as his brother Bob.

He is survived by his son Landon Carter Penn III, daughters Tiffany Penn and Chelsea Hoopes, son in law Chris, as well as his six grandchildren; Reed, Kayla, Rachel, Bradley, Keira and Kylee. He is also survived by sister, Jane and brother in law, Richard Bradford, nieces Kim, Shanna and Sarah, and nephew Drue.

Tribute Wall

CN

“ I was a classmate of Don's at Whittier Jr. High and Edison High. I remember him as a fun, friendly fellow. I visited his grave when I went to San Antonio in 2019. Condolences to his loved ones. Love, Caryl Everly Nixon in Alabama

---

Caryl Nixon - October 01, 2023 at 03:45 PM