

Larry Richard Young

October 21, 1942 - October 20, 2021

Larry Richard Young passed away unexpectedly on October 20, 2021 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on October 21, 1942 in Bremen, Indiana to Richard Young and Hope Irene Albert. Larry is survived by his beloved wife of 41 years, Mary Louise Meras Young; son, Matthew Richard Young; daughter, Sarah Ashley Young (her partner, Michael Phillips); numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws.

Larry served in the U.S. Air Force as a pilot reaching the rank of Captain. After leaving the Air Force, he received an MBA from Western Michigan University and pursued a career in the banking, pharmaceutical, and technology industries.

After retiring, he enjoyed traveling, reading, day trading and working in the yard.

He was a great husband, father and friend. He will be missed by all who knew him.

“ Mary, I was heartbroken to hear of Larry's passing and am so sorry for your loss. I always enjoyed running into you two at museum "happenings" and other events around Austin, as well as at Pat and William's fun gatherings. Although our moves took us in different directions I remember you both with great affection and appreciation for your friendship. This photo is how I remember him, with a smile on his face and joy in his heart.

“ Matt & Sarah. Your dad and I attended Western Michigan University and were dorm mates in 1961-62. We had great college experiences that we shared and have stayed in touch over the years. I also have two children, Mark, first born and Amy, second. We shared our pride in raising great kids. I have lost a really good friend- and know your loss is so much greater. Jim Bowen

“ Larry you will be missed by so many friends and family. My only regret is that we weren't able to visit often with you and Mary. I am so honored to call Sarah the daughter I never had and happy that you and your family accepted my son into your family with open arms.
