“ I am sorry for your loss. Lars and I grew up together going to House of Prayer. I didn't really know him as an adult, but I have numerous memories of him from Sunday School, confirmation, and youth group. He had a heart of gold. May Lars rest in peace.

I am at a loss for words. Growing up with Lars at House of prayer was an honor. My only regret is I did not stay in touch as we grew older. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ When we moved to Texas, I was 10 years old and Lars was four. As he grew to be five and six, he developed a specific style all on his own: nice pants, dress shirt with a sport coat, tie, cowboy boots and a cowboy hat. He looked well beyond his years. He loved a sport coat and tie because of Dad. I have so many good memories of that boy. The only boy. I love you Lars. 🙌👉❤️
