“Nay and I grew up together, played all day every day, picked berries together, made mud pies and played jump rope. We were childhood friends and we kept in touch as adults. We were lifelong friends, and I am devastated. She was such a beautiful person inside and out. So full of life and love. She made us so proud seeing all that she accomplished being from our small town. I will miss talking to you Nay. Sending my sincere condolences to your loving husband and your beautiful children. May God bless and strengthen them.”

“Joe, You and your family have my sincerest sympathy and condolences on the passing of your beloved LaSonia. I have been lifting your family in prayer ever since receiving the news. LaSonia, possessed such a loving, kind and nurturing spirit. There was no way to be in her presence and not feel that she genuinely cared about others. I pray that Jesus will continue to be a fence around you and your family as you go through your journey of grief. May God grant you that kind of peace that surpasses all understanding.”

“ My deepest condolences to the McClenton family. LaSonia was not only my Team Lead, she was my best friend. She taught me so much at the Ft Sam CPAC. She was always there for me in my time of need and such a beautiful soul. I will miss her greatly! I will never forget the imprint she has left on my life and so many others. I'm so thankful that our paths cross. (Military has a way of doing that) Me and her were like to peas in a pod, always trying to help others. I will never forget her. I pray God continues to keep and comfort your family during this most difficult time. Much love.. hugs.

“ Our Sincerest Condolences 🌸 to the Family I’ve put off writing on this for a week now, I finally had the courage to follow through with it. We will never be the same without “Mrs Life of the Party” she welcomed me with open arms, from the first time we met. Her spirit and energy overflowed without her saying a word. My future trips to Texas will NEVER feel right without you. You will forever be in our Hearts, Minds & Souls.
I’ll Always Love & Cherish You
May you Forever Rest Peacefully🕊️
