“ Mr Calderon, I'm so sorry to hear of Laura's passing. I had the pleasure of working with her at Sam's Club for many years. My most fondest memory of her is when you would meet her for breakfast on Saturday mornings. You would set everything up at the table for her at the cafe. I could see the immense love you two had for each other. Find peace and comfort knowing that she is not suffering anymore. My condolences to you and the family. Inez Estrada, Member Greeter

“ Doña Laura was such great human being and her legacy will live forever through her daughters, granddaughters and generations to come. She was always kind with me, her smile was sweet and gentle as her voice. She always had great words of encouragement or some good advice. She knew that I'm crazy but she never criticized me just like only a mother knows how to accept an imperfect creature. My parents came to visit me from Chile and they met Keyhla's parent at a Lone Star Emmy gala. My mom was so impressed when Doña Laura told my mom that she was going to college. Her life was exemplary and I wish she had stayed longer with us, but I guess the Lord need her more than us for a great purpose. ¡Feliz viaje de regreso a Casa!

“ I was blessed to meet Laura and speak with her recently. She made me feel at home and I very much enjoyed talking with her. I am very saddened that she is no longer with us, but I know that she was a believer and that God has her now in His protection. I pray that her family will know comfort and be able to recall the joy of her life as they carry on loving one another.
