“ Months later, I just saw this...She lived on my street and I was good friends with Lisa and spent so much time at their house! I have fond memories of the whole family and also Pat Herron. I am glad she is now with her loved ones again.

“ I met Laura a few years ago. She came to our birthday group through another friend. She and I celebrated our birthdays together, mine being at the end of December and hers in early January. We shared good times at our reunions, she was always so elegant and beautiful. She invited our group to the Fiesta de las Flores event. We became very close, but eventually time takes its toll. She announced she was going to live in Houston. She was one a and only kind of lady. She will be missed.

“ Laura was my first cousin and we didn't get to know each other until we started to meet for mass at the Oblate chapel. Afterwards we would go for lunch at Denny's or the Souper Salads place. I remember going to a Lulac dinner dance with her at the Shriners hall one October. She was very devoted to the Lulac council #2 and especially to the Reina de las Flores program. I really missed her when she moved to Houston to live with Alyson.

“ Laura's daughter Becky was my sister-in-law and through this relationship our families became one. We shared many happy times and holidays together. Laura and Ned were so helpful when my own parents became ill and cared deeply for them. I maintained a friendship long after our family members had passed away and so grateful for that time. Our family will miss Laura and all of the times we shared. She was a beautiful woman. Inside and out.
