“ I was saddened by the news today of Sr. Laura’s Passing 🕊️💜 Sr Laura served at our old Parish of St. Clare in San Antonio’s Southside which my parents were original parishioners who helped build St. Clare. I remember her as well as Sr. Bertha and Se. Virginia. She taught us catechism and often came for a visit at our house. In her later years I enjoyed seeing her put together The Mañanitas to La Virgen De Guadalupe at San Fernando Cathedral. Her beautiful smile was always so welcoming to us. They (Sisters) lived next door to the church (early 70’s) and while my dad often could be found working at the church or church grounds I’d get to visit with them and she allowed me to play with the Piano they had and always got a homemade treat on my way out.

May she be resting in Gods eternal glory and May the perpetual light shine upon her. My most sincere condolences to her family and friends.
