FLUME

Lawrence J. Flume, Jr. was called home by our Lord on March 30, 2012 . Larry, as he was better known to family and friends, was born on May 16, 1921. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lawrence J. Flume, Sr. and Cecile E. Flume nee Costello; his two wives, Mariolivie Graf Flume and Violet Sigoloff Flume; and his brother and wife, Edward S. and Betty Flume. Larry is survived by his daughter, Carolyn Clark and her husband, Jim of San Antonio; his son, Robert L. Flume and his wife, Sherry of New Braunfels; two grandsons, Matthew Flume and his wife, Kate, Clint Flume and his wife, Tara; three great grandsons, Lawrence Harris Flume, Theodore Robert Flume and August Timothy Flume, all of Dallas. He is also survived by his brother, Dr. John B. Flume and wife, Sally of Spokane, WA; his sister, Mary Catherine Janssen and husband, Herman of San Antonio; two step-children, Bruce Sigoloff and wife, Debbie and their children, Brian and Sarah, and Nelson Sigoloff and wife, Debbie and their children, Eric and Sam, all of San Antonio; and numerous nieces and nephews. Born and raised in San Antonio, Texas, Larry graduated from St. Mary's University and proudly served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II starting as an instructor pilot and finishing the war as a squadron commander with rank of major. After the war, he became a CPA which he practiced for many years, along with separate business ventures. An avid hunter and fisherman, Larry would light up the room with his smile and great wit. If desired, memorial contributions may be sent to the Nimitz Museum in Fredericksburg, Texas, of which Larry was an ardent supporter.
