

Lawrence A. Jackson

June 7, 1931 - November 19, 2025

Lawrence Alvin Jackson, known lovingly by his family as "Papo", was born to parents Lawrence Andrew Jackson and Mae Teresa Jackson on June 7th, 1931, in Devine, Texas. After graduating High School, he was drafted into the Army and served valiantly in the Korean War. He married the love of his life, Nancy Jackson, and they spent 43 years together.

Lawrence A. Jackson was skilled in auto body work and created his own business with this talent. Lawrence was a proud member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion. Being an avid outdoorsman, Lawrence loved to travel, and he often took road trips all throughout the Texas Hill Country. One of his favorite places to frequent was Chalk Bluff. On these trips with his family, they would stop to camp and fish even though he often did not have his fishing license. Lawrence would also spend time hunting big rocks with spiders and scorpions on them. He loved to grow his flowers and plants. He also loved to feed his birds.

Lawrence A. Jackson is preceded in passing by his parents, Lawrence Andrew Jackson and Mae Teresa Jackson; his son, Albert Salas Jr.; his sister, Joanna; and his brother, Ed Jackson.

Lawrence is survived by his beloved wife, Nancy Jackson; his daughters, Teresa Mae Jackson, Mary Granado, and Cynthia Salas; his sons, Edward Lawrence Jackson, David Salas, and Ronald Estrada; numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, a great-great-grandchild, and nieces. Lawrence A. Jackson will be sorrowfully missed by all.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of my Uncle Lawrence. Growing up, my Grandma Mae’s house was the heart of our family — breakfast and dinner every day, the whole family gathered, and often neighbors and friends too. Those were our family moments, and Uncle Lawrence was always a steady, comforting presence.

He was such a kind and patient man, someone who made everyone feel welcome and cared for. My heart goes out to my cousins, Edward Lawrence Jackson and Theresa Mae Jackson, and of course to his loving wife Nancy. My thoughts are with the whole family, friends, and everyone whose life he touched.

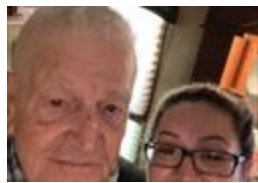

He will be deeply missed.

“ He was known to most as Papo, but to me, he was always Grandpa. A proud Korean War veteran, he carried himself with quiet strength and a humble heart. Some of my favorite memories are the drives he took us on through the Hill Country—no rush, no plan, just stories, laughter, and a new restaurant waiting at the end of the road. He lived simply, loved deeply, and found joy in every moment he shared with his family. Grandpa leaves behind a legacy of kindness, adventure, and unwavering love. He will be missed more than words can say.

“ Grandpa, the memories I got to make with you throughout my childhood I will forever cherish. From teaching Roxanne and I how to drive you little truck to taking us to pick peaches. You and grandma gave us endless memories that I hope I'm able to pass to my kids. I love you and will miss you.
