

Leatrice Mae Koehler

May 20, 1927 - April 3, 2018

Leatrice (Lea) Mae Michalk Koehler was born in La Grange, Texas on May 20, 1927 to Gus and Emma Wolf Michalk. She passed peacefully on to her Heavenly home on April 3, 2018 in Bryan, Texas.

She was baptized on June 5, 1927 at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Warda, Texas and confirmed on April 6, 1941 at Zion Lutheran Church in La Grange, Texas.

On June 18, 1949 she married Edwin L. Koehler at First Lutheran Church in Van Nuys, California. They lived in California until 1954 when they moved to Texas and eventually settled in San Antonio. The Lord blessed them with three wonderful children, Janet, Kenneth and Gayle, nine loving and caring grandchildren and two great grandchildren, so far!

For seven years she worked as an administrative secretary at Northeast Baptist Hospital in San Antonio. After retiring, she volunteered at Northeast Baptist Hospital and North Central Baptist hospital for 15 years.

She and her husband were members of St. Paul Lutheran Church in San Antonio for 15 years and their children attended the parochial school there. After moving to the northern area of San Antonio they transferred their membership to Mt Calvary Lutheran. Both she and her husband were active at both churches. At Mt Calvary they organized the “care and concern” committee after they observed the love and care given their daughter Janet during her struggle with cancer by her church. She loved music and sang in the choir in all the churches she attended.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Gus and Emma Michalk; her husband, Edwin L. Koehler; her daughter, Janet Krolak; and one sister, Nell Pierce. She is survived by her son, Kenneth Koehler; a daughter, Gayle Westmoreland and her husband Dare; son-in-law John Krolak and his wife, Brenda. She is also survived by her very dear and special grandchildren: Julie Krolak, John Krolak, Jr., Joy Krolak, Cody Koehler and wife Michelle, Kyle Koehler and wife Kelli, Cassidy Koehler, Harrison Westmoreland and wife Allison, Lorien Westmoreland and husband Michael and Grant Westmoreland. She is also survived by two great grandchildren Rosalie Clare Koehler and Olivia Chambers Koehler, as well as her niece Victoria Pierce and many dear and loving friends and relatives.

“ My deepest condolences to the Koehler family. Leatrice was my last living God Mother. I was blessed to meet her and Ed several years ago after coming across a picture and article in the local paper regarding her high school reunion, fortunately, I was able to obtain her phone number. We have kept in touch reminiscing about our families. Heaven gained a special angel. May God bless and comfort you.

“ I didn't know Mrs. Koehler, but if her daughter-in-law and granddaughter are any indication, I'm sure she was a lovely person. My sincere condolences to the entire family. You are in my prayers.
