

Lee Edward Unger

March 11, 1921 - April 18, 2008

Lee Edward Unger, Sr

March 11, 1921 – April 18, 2008

A long time resident of San Antonio, TX, Lee Unger was born in Mound City, Illinois, the youngest of 10 children. Lee attended Concordia College in Milwaukee, WI, where he was nicknamed "Ox" for his strength which he exhibited in a bear wrestling contest at the county fair. Lee joined the United States Marine Corps to serve his country in the Pacific Theater of WWII, including campaigns in Roi-Namur, Saipan, Tinian, and Iwo Jima. He continued to carry the Semper Fi philosophy into all he did. He married his childhood sweetheart, Ruth Jacobsmeyer on September 5, 1943. Lee was a devout Christian whose life as a disciple of Jesus Christ was evident to all who came in contact with him. His faithful service to the church and others was a seemingly effortless part of his life. Along with his wife of 64 years, Ruth, he spent many hours serving and caring for his family, church, and community with open arms. Lee was the living epitome of his frequent quote, "The best thing you can do for your children is to love your wife." He will always be remembered for the wonderful poetry that he wrote to express his love of family and joy in life.

Lee is survived by his wife Ruth and their nine children: Mark and Cynthia Unger, Karen and John Rayburg, Ellen and Ernie Mazurek, Susan and Gary Roberts, Lee Jr, and Debi Unger, Hank and Mary Unger, Bill and Laurie Unger, John Unger, Alice and Charles Childress, along with 24 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren.

Viewing is scheduled for Thursday, April 24, 2008 from 6PM to 9PM at Mission Park North. Burial with military honors will be conducted at Fort Sam Houston, Friday, April 25, 2008 at 11:15am. A memorial service to follow on Wednesday, April 30, 2008, at 10:00AM, at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 2507 Fredericksburg Road, San Antonio, TX, 78201.

You may sign the on-line guestbook at www.missionparks.com under the obituary section.

“ Dear Ruth and family,
I remember that I shared Lee's birthday. I have fond memories of you and Lee from my years at Redeemer. What a wonderful example of Christ's love you both have been. Ruth, may you find comfort in that love now.
Love, Sabrina
