“ Lee was a wonderful neighbor of over 20 years. She was always so gracious and thoughtful. In my husbands younger years, he would cut our lawn & move right over & cut hers. He didn't accept payment of course, so Mrs Lee (my girls nickname for her) would pay him with a Marie Callender's Pie. She inspired us to keep our street clean because she was always walking up & down the street with a small bag for trash. Even when she needed a rolling walker, she continued to do so. And, no matter the season, she was always ready to talk about her Spurs! There are many other memories we have of Lee & her thoughtfulness. She always had a smile , kind words & quick wit. And she always went out of her way to be kind to our girls. She had a strong faith & I think that is what made her so special. There aren't many like Lee that you will have the pleasure of meeting in a lifetime & she will certainly be missed.

Although I'm running late posting a tribute about Lee, I couldn't have said it any better, Mary. We live on the other side of Lee, and my husband would finish our yard and move on to hers, especially since the front yards are connected. It Everything you said about picking up the trash is so true. One time when she was going around picking up trash, she was using her walker that had a seat on it. The seat had a top that could be opened for storage. I stopped to talk with her, and she lifted the seat lid to put some trash in. There was a big empty whiskey bottle in there. I told her she shouldn't drink and walk at the same time. We were both laughing at the things she would gather up. The Marie Callender comment made me chuckle. Every time I have had surgery she would bring me a Marie Callender pie. I told her it almost made having surgery really worth it! She was a sweetheart that will really be missed!
