

Leo S. Joeris

September 21, 1918 - March 26, 2005

Leo S. Joeris, beloved husband, father and grandfather went to be with his Lord March 26, 2005 at the age of 86. He was born September 21, 1918 to Anna and Joseph Joeris in Abilene, TX. He is preceded in death by his parents, brothers, Joe, Martin and Fred Joeris; and sister, Mary Shipman. He is survived by his beloved wife of 55 years, Leatrice Joeris; daughter, Lynette Elaine Joeris; sons, Gary Lane Joeris and David Stephen Joeris; grandchildren, Tandy Joeris, Madison Joeris, and Travis Joeris; and many nieces and nephews.

Leo was a noted General Contractor in San Antonio. With a love of construction since his early childhood, Leo has been involved with many major commercial buildings in San Antonio. James Madison High School, Southwest High School and the Broadway Plaza Hotel are just a few of the many local landmarks undertaken by the company that he built. He was well respected as a honest and fair businessman and was honored with numerous awards for his accomplishments. He served in the US Air Force in World War II achieving the rank of 1st Class Sgt. Leo was a rancher in his spare time raising registered beefmaster cattle. He served as a director of Beefmaster Breeders Universal and was as respected and successful in the cattle industry as in the construction industry. He will be dearly missed by his family and many, many friends. May he be at peace at his Father's side. God bless you Dad, we love you.
