“ My most sincere condolences to the spouse and family on their loss,,may God pull you through at this difficult time. I knew Locadio when he was more or less 21, were co-workers when we were working at the Sunshine Laundry, together with his wife Paula and three of his sisters and one brother, later my husband Edward met him while they were employed at Wilford Hall Medical Center. My husband at this point does not remember as he has mild dementia. Last time we saw him was at his 50th Wedding Anniversary, but always on our thoughts, May he rest in Peace!
