“ Leon was my father-in-law and I couldn't have asked for a better one. His quiet spirit and ready smile, as well as his constant supply of jokes made for a lot of happy times. He was an amazing grandfather who always had time for a story or an ice cream with his grandchildren. We all miss him and hold our memories of him close to our hearts. We love you, Leon.

“ Leon, Tommie, Sharon and Allen lived next door to us for many years, from the time Sharon and I were about 1 year old. Many happy memories of him and the fun times we had as families and neighbors. In many ways, we considered them family, and still do. Glad that we got to visit several times recently. Alice has been an awesome and loving wife to Leon, caring for him over the last few years and providing support and encouragement. They had some great times together as well. So happy they had each other. We will miss him. He was a wonderful man.
