“ One has many acquaintances that one considers a friend during their life but only a few become treasured friends and like a sister. Marie was one of those people to me. We met over 30 years ago when our husbands became golfing buddies. Marie and I enjoyed easy conversations and enjoyed golfing together. The first time we played together on our local par 3 course, Marie almost made a hole/in-one. I know she and Andy enjoyed many games together in their travels. Most of these years we lived far apart but it was as though no time had past when we were together again. Marie had such an open sharing heart. She was talented in embroidery and crafting and I was the fortunate recipient of many beautiful gifts from her. On a visit to CA from Florida, she brought me a pair of alligator earrings and told us (my then 2-yr old grandson) about the alligators and he always referred to her as the alligator lady when I wore the earrings. I have worn them a lot this last year and thought of and prayed for Marie each time. Every time I wear them, I will thank God that Marie was one of the special women that touched and blessed my life. Rest in the loving arms of our Lord, Marie.

My family and I laid my beloved wife to rest nestled at the foot of my Mother and Father in my home town of San Antonio where we were married 54 years ago on May 20th. I love her and miss her so. Thank you Sue for your heartfelt words about my missing cornerstone.
