“ I met Leonard working at CPS back in the early 1980s, we became very good friends and eventually became compadres. I remember the good times hanging out with Leonard and Mary Lou and his family, those are good memories.

Rest in Peace my Friend.

My condolences to all the Espinoza Family, May God give you strength and may your heart and soul find comfort.

“ My brother in law, Leonard (babe) as every one used to called him, was a wonderful man and loved by all. My sister Marylou and Leonard devoted their lives to their children and grand children. Now gone so fast. There is so much to say, memories to share about a wonderful great man (Leonard). His genuine kindness would always shine through.

Leonard! you will stay in our hearts as as long as we live. Leonard always had a smile with a friendly word. He was so generous and a loyal Dallas Cowboy fan.
