“ Aunt Nora,

Some of the best memories of my entire life include the trips to San Antonio. Until the day I pass from this world, I shall have the loving memories of traveling far to see family that loved me as much as their own son, or brother.

“ Gram'ma,
My first memories in life are of you and I will always use your impression on my life as a guide for you were a wonderful teacher.
Since I left my home in San Antonio many years ago it has been you and Gram'pa who I've missed the most.
I know

“ Aunt Nora,
would just like you to know you were very much loved by Candala, who always said you were a sister to her, and by Carol your GodChild.
May you and Uncle Tony rest in peace with each other, because I know you have gone to a wonderful beginning
