

Leopoldo Oriel Laguna

October 22, 1941 - October 2, 2024

Leopoldo Oriel Laguna age 82, of San Antonio, Texas entered the gates of heaven on October 02, 2024. He was born in Dilley, Texas in 1941 to Elias Morua Laguna and Paula Gonzales Aguirre. The family moved to San Antonio where he attended Harlandale High School and graduated class of 1962. After graduating he went to work in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and on January 1965 he was drafted into the United States Army.

Leopoldo was preceded in death by his parents Elias and Paula Laguna; brothers Rodolfo, Lionel, Celso, and Rene Laguna; sisters Guadalupe and Alma Laguna. He is survived by his devoted wife of 57 years, Guadalupe R. Laguna, daughters Christina R. Laguna Flores, husband Armando Flores, and Areli R. Laguna. Sons Oriel R. Laguna, wife Jennifer T. Laguna, Gabriel R. Laguna, wife Cristian Laguna and his sister Gloria Watson. Along with ten grandchildren, one great grandson, loving family and friends.

Leopoldo served honorably in the United States Army, the Army National Guard, an Army reservist and the Texas Air National Guard. He also attended St. Phillip's College and was a master plumber at Kelly Air Force Base in the 76 Civil Engineer Squadron where he received achievement awards and certificates of training throughout his career before happily retiring. He enjoyed fishing, gardening, baseball games, classic cars, and especially fiesta and festivals.

Leopoldo your smile, joking and laughter will be greatly missed but forever in our hearts. We will celebrate your life and share your memories with the next generation of our family.
