

Leopoldo "Paul" C. Vera

August 18, 1930 - March 6, 2017

Leopoldo "Paul" C. Vera

Paul C. Vera, born August 18, 1930 embraced God on March 6, 2017 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 86. He was preceded in death by his wife Beatrice E. Vera; parents Calletano and Victoria C. Vera; sisters Gregoria Alvarez, Jacinta Banegas and Josefina Salazar. He is survived by his daughters Yolanda V. Duron (Aauto) and Gloria V. Esquivel; son Valentine E. Vera (Oralia); brother Baudelio Vera; eight grandchildren and nine great grandchildren; he is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews. Although Paul did not complete high school, he became a good business man; he established Paul's Amusement Co. in the 1960's and after acquiring several properties set up his rental business. In his retirement years, he enjoyed his race horses. We would like to thank everyone who visited him, his medical provider, Dr. Calle and his staff, his caregiver, Mr. Daniel Duron. Paul will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

“ My deepest condolences to all the Vera family. Although I did not have the privilege of personally knowing Mr. Vera, I have the privilege of knowing Yolanda and Aduino Duron, a wonderful daughter and son-in-law, who stood by him along with the rest of the family until the very end. May God give you the grace to accept Gods designs in the lives of all of us. Mr. Vera, I am sure, is at peace with our creator, which ultimately is the journey we must all follow. May God bless each and everyone of the family members. May Mr. Vera rest in peace.

“ The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken
and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*

*Yolanda, my sweet friend,
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
