“ He was my stepdad however he was my 2nd dad he was always there when I needed help. When I was younger helped me get my first car and also my second car.
He taught me concrete construction and was one of the hardest working man I have ever known
I am forever grateful for what he did for me when I was younger and also for always being there as I became a adult and for taking of us and my mom all those years.
This is dad when I saw this quote
What we do for ourselves dies with us .What we do for others and the world remains and is immortal . By Albert Pine

“ I knew you just a few short months when you joined our South San Senior Center.
You were always kind to me. A true gentleman. Your infectious smile will always be in my memory of you. May you rest in peace my friend.
