“Leroy, through daily example, taught me how to take care of business. He consistently exemplified grace under pressure, underscoring it with a playful and respectful demeanor. I was new to kitchen work, and Leroy (who we sometimes called "Tyrone") generously showed me the ropes. His recipe was a mix of composure, musical merriment, and personal flair. He was a joy to hang out with outside the workplace, too. Anyplace I saw him, he'd greet everyone with welcoming words and a friendly smile. Leroy was a creative and positive soul and his influence lives on in me.

With love and gratitude to Leroy, his family, and friends,

“ I worked with Leroy at Maggie's for many, many years. He could cook like no one else, and was the most fun, personable person in the place. He always had a smile in his face, and could cook ten things at once (he would make me special pizzas once I finished closing the bar at 4:00 a.m.) To his family, please accept my sincere condolences. Leroy was a wonderful soul. May you find comfort in your memories and love for him. He will be dearly missed.
