“ God bless the broken road that brought he and I together. He dedicated a song to me by Raul Malo “Feels Like Home”. It was definitely the perfect song to show the love my life brought to him. He loved me more than I ever thought someone could and proved it every day. He was an amazing man, husband, father, grandfather, Uncle and Friend. He gave me a world I never thought possible. The love, the caring, the trust, the understanding, The funny moments, his witty mind, And his Devotion to serve others. My sweetheart you will always be my soulmate and we will be together in eternity. And I know you'll be waiting for me at the pearly white gates. No trip anywhere or RV trip will ever replace the fun we shared Going to Eureka Arkansas, Taos New Mexico, Durango Colorado, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts. And along with that mini road trip's that took us where ever we wound up. Our Love is everlasting. Being your wife was my greatest blessing. I am so honored that I was able to spend the time we shared together. Love has no boundaries!!

“ Les loved my sister dearly, would always do things for her, leave her loving notes to start her day off. Was such a character when it came to Halloween dressing up in a clown outfit to scare his daughters. He was a good loving man who loved his wife and family. You will be missed.
