Leticia Pecina Alvarado November 18, 1977 – August 30, 2022

and

Aurelia Liselle Alvarado January 21, 2015 – August 30, 2022

Leticia Pecina Alvarado and Aurelia Liselle Alvarado went to be with the Lord on August 30, 2022, at the ages of 44 and 7 years old. They are survived by loving husband and father Jorge Alberto Alvarado; parents and grandparents Rudy Y. Pecina and Rebecca Moreno Pecina; children and siblings Leopoldo Antonio Alvarado and Leanna Alanae Alvarado; siblings, aunts and uncles Bertha Pecina, Mary Ann Carrizales (Andrew Carrizales), Deborah Duron (Reuben Duron), Yolanda Pecina Salinas and Rudy Marcial Pecina along with Aurelia's paternal grandparents Eloy Alvarado and Maria Magdalena Alvarado numerous nieces and nephews of Leticia, aunts and uncles and cousins of Aurelia, friends, loved ones and extended family members.

Leticia enjoyed regular outings to the river and Rockport TX and gatherings with family, extended family, and friends. She was a great cook known for several specialty dishes, she was a great advocate for her children's learning and activities and was a very loving mother, provider and a devoted spouse. She was also a compassionate and loving caregiver to her mother and father and always willing to help her siblings, nieces and nephews to lend an ear or helping hand. She worked for the County of Bexar for 20 years.

Aurelia was a beautiful, vibrant, and loving girl who enjoyed outdoor activities, online games and video calls with her school friends, playing dress up, and having girl's day with her cousins. She was colorful and artistic and cheerful and sometimes sassy with family much like her tio. She deeply adored her parents, grandparents, siblings and tio and spending time with her cousins and family.

“ I liked the flowers spreading bright colors across the field that was their home. The sunshine lays out the start of a new day. I could see a family growing, day by day. Now I pray that the Lord will shine His Light for them. Their memory will never fade .The flowers and colors will fade. But the Lord's sunshine will bring them New Life. Their memory, as always, in our hearts. May your souls rest in Peace.
