

Leticia R. Galindo

June 17, 1920 - March 6, 2013

Leticia R. Galindo went to be in God's glory March 6, 2013. She was preceded in death by her parents, Dr. Simon & Evangelina Avila Rodriguez; her husband, Gustavo Galindo. Leticia leaves behind her daughter, Patricia S. Serna; son, Daniel Saenz, DDS; grandchildren, Victoria Larry Rice, Lorena Saenz; great granddaughters, Rebecca Rice and Sophia Rice; sister, Rosa Marta R. Trevino; brother, Rolando Dharma Rodriguez; several nieces and nephews, and a host of dear friends.

Letty traveled the world visiting many exotic and adventurous places. She was very civic and social minded, devoting many of her younger years to those not as fortunate. She was an active member and held several elected posts in the Pan American Round Table, Pan American League, and the Patronato de la Cultura Hispano-Americana. Additionally, in the past, she had worked with the Head Start Program. Letty was a gregarious person who loved a good game of Canasta, any party, dancing, a good political argument she was even invited to dinner at the White House and danced with Alfredo Stroessner, the dictator of Paraguay, and a good joke. She will be sorely missed by many who knew her.
