“ Hey, my love Leticia Ann Martinez Vasquez I lost you too soon mamas and miss you so very much. I should have approached you sooner, but blame it on my mother, lol. My love you have been my childhood love and so happy that not only found you but made a life with you. Feel so lost and lonely without you and see not end to my pain!!! But I hear it's going to get better, and all I can do is believe. It's getting harder as the days are getting closer my love but am trying. You have made me a better man, father, grandfather, uncle, nephew and especially husband, love and miss you so very much.

“ Letty, one of my childhood besties! I am still in disbelief that you have left us, but know in my heart that your first breath in heaven was effortless. Our recent short visit will forever be imprinted in my mind. I will cherish these few words we exchanged: “Letty, it’s me, Annie, your bestie.” You replied, “Forever.” “I love you!” You replied, “I love you too.”

Thank you for the memories. I know we will dance again, as one of my favorite memories was dancing to “The Hustle” at age 12 at my dad’s bar, Mission Trail Inn. “Where Friends Meet”.

Rest in Peace and may the Perpetual Light Shine upon You! Until we meet again.
