

Lexina K. Miguez

October 27, 1931 - September 26, 2006

Lexina K. Miguez departed this life for her heavenly home after a long illness on Tuesday, September 26, 2006. She was preceded in death by her parents, Clerphy “Clifford” S. Miguez and Augusta Miguez. She is survived by her cousins, Mary Trip, Karen Wilson, Terrie Trip, John Wilson, Sr., Ted Trip, and other beloved family members. Lexina was baptized and confirmed at Grace Lutheran Church in San Antonio, where she sang in the choir in earlier years. She graduated from Trinity University and then taught students in the Northeast ISD of San Antonio, Texas, for many years. When she retired she traveled the world and the United States. Her life was blessed with friends and family whom she loved and who loved her. She especially enjoyed good food, painting, sculpting, music, gardening, and animals. Her illness took many of these pleasures from her over the years, yet she remained optimistic and in good spirits.

“ *Hello,
I want to offer my condolences for Ms. Miguez, my fifth grade teacher, at West Avenue elementary. I am sorry to hear about her passing. The obituary mentions her liking of the arts and I can remember very much about her liking to Marcel Marceau th*

I can't say enough beautiful about Ms. Miguez. She was my home room and art teacher back in 1975, and she was so loving and really cared about us students, as for myself, she inspired me to be the artist, sculptor and craftsman I am today.

*God bless you,
You are the best*
