“ I lived across the street from Mr. and Mrs. Arms growing up. She taught me how to play Chinese Checkers, and she would help chase down my dog when he escaped from our yard. A play date at her house was the very best day. It usually included picking tomatoes from her prized tomato garden, a delicious Homemade sandwich (perfectly toasted!) and an ice cream drumstick from the freezer in back (I knew where all the special treats were!). I know she is in heaven now making everyone smile. I am so grateful for those memories. Christina Kahn Lecholop

“ We wanted to express out sincere sympathy to the family of Liddie Arms. Our deceased mother, Lillian Martin was Liddie's dear friend and relative and spoke of her often with great affection. Lillian was the daughter of Herman and Minnie Saathoff Lindeburg
