

Lillian Louise Goodin-Stahl

August 10, 1924 - May 27, 2012

Lillian Louise Goodin-Stahl, age 87, passed away on May 27, 2012 and has been reborn into her eternal life. Lillian was born in San Antonio, TX on August 10, 1924, to Emory F. and Louise Gould Morse. She was raised in San Antonio, graduating from Thomas Jefferson HS and attended San Antonio Junior College where she met her husband, George Courtney Goodin. They married February 12, 1944, and attended University of Texas, Austin until Courtney enlisted in Army and was an Army Air Corp flight instructor in Pampa, TX. They returned to San Antonio after Courtney's military service to raise their family. Lillian and Courtney were avid bridge players and active members of Beacon Hill Presbyterian Church. Lillian worked in the medical profession for many years. She loved bridge and enjoyed garden club. She was preceded death by Courtney in 1984. She married Theodore Stahl in 1991. They continued to play bridge, traveled and remained active in Beacon Hill. She was preceded in death by Ted in 1997. She was also proceeded in death by her brothers, Dr. Richard G. Morse and Marvin A. Morse.

Survivors: Daughter, Nancy Books and husband David; Son, Courtney McCary Goodin; Grandson, John David Brooks and wife Hayley; Great-Grandchildren, Hannah and Mason; and numerous nieces and nephews.