“ I have so many memories of Irene's love and hospitality from the moment we met, even before I became a family member. She always made holidays and visits treasured memories through the years. D.W. loved his niece very much. I will always chuckle when I look back at how similar our wedding pictures were - most of the same family attending and me wearing her wedding dress at mine. We are so saddened to hear of her passing. She was beloved by our family and will stay in our hearts and memories forever.

“ Our sweet, beautiful Aunt Irene. For some reason, I thought you would live forever. So strong, so resilient, and so kind to all. I didn't always understand how difficult kindness is and still wonder how you made it seem so effortless. The embodiment of strength and love through faith. Resilience . I will never forget your gentle and patient guidance. So many experiences to share...hopefully I will have a chance to share these for the next generation, as they are priceless anecdotes for life.....but mostly I will always hold Aunt Irene as the highest standard for a human being. I love you so much and I find comfort knowing you are with your Heavenly Father and all your loved ones in Heaven. Thank you for every single precious moment ...PS I hope they have really good Texas barbecue up there for you and Uncle Kendall to enjoy.
