“ My dear Cousins, Oh how the memories come flooding back. I was just 10 when we left Texas, but boy oh boy,, the memories of playing between Granny's and your mama's house are the very best memories a kid could ask for. I feel such a heartache for you guys, and frankly, for me too, because she was such a big part of those memories.I love you all, and know my heart and prayers are right there with all of you. It is a loss for all of us, and she will always stay in a special place in my heart.

All my Love, and Prayers,
Cousin Karen
