Lily Wong Ng, 98, passed away peacefully on Sunday morning, November 24, 2024 in San Antonio, Texas. She was living at San Antonio Wellness and Rehabilitation at the time.

Lily was born on March 8, 1926 in San Antonio, Texas to parents Pon Tong Wong and Lee Shee Wong.

She grew up at 1819 W. Laurel St. with her older sister, Dora, younger brother, Franklin James, and little sister, Mable (6 years younger). In 1939, her parents borrowed money to build a grocery store (Liberty Food Store) at 3403 S. Flores, and lived upstairs for many years! It was a wonderful, big living area where they grew up and later, we all celebrated many holidays together!

Lily went to Pauline Nelson Elementary, Horace Mann Junior High, and then graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in 1944.. At Jefferson, she was a Member of the Lassos, and President of the FHA (Future Homemakers of America).

She worked for her parents at Liberty Food Store, for Dora and John Leung at John L's, and then for Foley's until she was 80 years old.

She met and married Sing Gum Ng in 1944, when she was 18 years old. They had one daughter, Evelyn, in 1947.

Lily was a loving wife and mother, a kind and generous friend and "Aunt Lily" to all her family members, a very hard worker, an active and respected member of the Chinese community, and was loved by everyone who knew her.

Lily is survived by her daughter, Evelyn Ng Gauny, grandson Travis Johnson Ward (Carolyn) and grandson Paul Ng Ward (Amy). She is loved by 3 grandchildren, Elijah Ward, Juna Ng Ward, and Evelyn Olivia Ward. She is also survived by her sister, Mable Wong Lew (92), who lives in Sugar Land, Texas, and numerous nieces and nephews, and several Godchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Sing Gum Ng, sister Dora Leung, brother Frank Wong, and family members John Leung Sr, Mildred Wong, Nann Lew, and Kenneth Chin.
