

Lily Ernestina Torres

November 7, 1927 - January 20, 2020

Lily Ernestina (Ramirez) Torres, age 92, formerly of San Antonio, Texas passed away at Baylor Scott & White Hospital in McKinney, Texas on January 20, 2020.

Born on November 7, 1927 in San Antonio, Lily was the daughter of the late Jose Maria and Romana (Perez) Ramirez. She was preceded in death by her sisters, Blanca, Ruth and Josefina and her brothers, Ramon and Jose. A graduate of Lanier High School, Lily worked as a sales associate at Joske's Department Store and Carl's Fashion Boutique.

Lily was the beloved wife of the late Enrique Torres for 62 years and a devoted mother of George Torres and wife Corina of San Antonio, Rosalinda Ross and husband Mark Ross of Washington Crossing, PA and Rita Torres of McKinney. She was a loving grandmother of George and Maria Torres, Michael and Tanya Torres, Jennifer and John Schuler, Jonathan Ross, Joshua and Valerie Ross, and Garrett Tucker. She was an adoring Great-Grandmother of Jorge Enrique and Maria Valentina Torres, Julie Elizabeth and Jacob Michael Torres, Lily Katelyn Schuler and Max Steven McCorkle, and newborn Elijah Keith Tucker.

A resident of San Antonio for over 90 years, Lily was a parishioner of Holy Family Catholic Church and St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Lily was a devout Christian, who loved reading and studying the Bible, especially the Psalms. She would rise each day before sunrise to pray for her family and friends or for anyone she heard was ill. Her evening prayers were filled with gratitude and thankfulness. Her faith in the Lord was unfaltering.

We will miss our Mom or as her grandchildren called her, Mamo. We will miss her comedic antics earning her the name "Silly Lily". We will miss her kisses that always left pink lipstick on our cheeks.

We will miss hearing her "special blessing" that she bestowed on us after a visit or at the end of a long distance call. We will remember her deep love for her family and carry it in our hearts.

Lily is now with our Lord in Heaven, reunited with her parents, her siblings and most of all her loving, devoted husband, Enrique.

Dearest Mamo, it's time for us to say to you the "special blessing":

The Lord bless you and keep you; The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; The Lord lift up His face upon you, and give you peace. (Numbers 6:24-26)

Rosary and Visitation Service will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapel North, 3401 Cherry Ridge Drive, on Tuesday, February 4, 2020 at 7:00 p.m. A Funeral Mass will be held at San Fernando Cathedral on Wednesday, February 5th at 9:30 a.m.

Interment will be at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery at 11:30 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital or a charity of your choice would be most appreciated.

“ Missing you so much my Beautiful, Loving Mom. Yesterday was my 69th Birthday and all I could think about was how I would not hear your loving voice wishing me a happy & blessed birthday! You never forgot! I miss talking to you, I miss hugging you and I miss your blessings! Praying that you knew I had the best Mom in the world and that you and Daddy are together with all loved ones! We all miss you so much!! ❤️ Bibi

“ I remember Aunt Lily very well; seeing her on visits and especially on Christmas Eve visits at Aunt Susie Perez' house. When I was a kid, my mother, her sister Josefina, would meet with her, and also sometimes their sister Ruth, in downtown San Antonio and said that they would go "pata de perro," (foot of a dog), wandering around from store to store all over downtown, enjoying their afternoon visits. I also remember her nickname for her sister Lily: "Leon" (Lion), for her bouffant-style red hairdo. :-)

Sorry we won't be able to make it to San Antonio to attend her funeral. But may the Torres Family know that she and you all are in our hearts, thoughts and prayers. May she rest in peace, together with her beloved husband, Enrique.

I remember the many visits with many uncles and aunts, including Tia Lily at Tia Uchi's home, especially during the holidays. All family members and friends would gather in her small house feasting on tamales and other Mexican dishes. RIP Tia Lily. Say hi to Tio Enrique for us.
