“ Last night, I dreamed of Linda. I’ll admit, it had been some time since I’d thought of her, though she has always held a special place in my heart. You see, I was her very best friend when we were young children who grew together into carefree teenagers, full of laughter and love for life.

I stood beside her on her wedding day, proud to witness the beautiful woman she had become. Our bond was unshakable back then. But as life often does, it scattered us across miles, and the years quietly slipped by.

When I watched her memorial video, I could see she had lived a full, beautiful life—surrounded by people she loved and who loved her deeply.

In my dream, she came to me glowing, smiling, just as she used to. She said she missed me but knew I would be overjoyed to see her. We reminisced about those Friday nights at the Dearborn Civic Center—how we’d make up our own dances just to be noticed, laughing without a care in the world. It felt as if no time had passed at all.

When I awoke, I knew in my heart that she was gone. I searched online and found her memorial, confirming what my dream had already told me.

Linda will forever remain in my prayers, just as she has for decades.

“ *AJ and Linda were so kind and good to me and my children. I worked for them doing many remodeling jobs at their house. My heart goes out to you AJ, as I know you will miss her dearly. I loved working for you both and my heart is so sad to hear the news. I will keep you and your families in my prayers.
