

Linda Garcia

July 24, 1948 - January 5, 2007

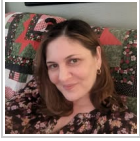

Linda Herlinda Bueno Garcia was born in San Antonio, Texas on July 24, 1948 and entered into rest very unexpectedly as a result of a brain aneurysm on January 5, 2007. Linda led a very full and productive life as she was ready for every challenge which she embraced with the utmost confidence and determination. She gave 100% in her many relationships and was most cherished as a mother, grandmother, daughter, sibling, friend, and co-worker, all roles which defined her life. Unselfish, joyful, loving are words which best describe Linda. She greeted everyone and every day with her beautiful smile. Her family was her greatest love, and she its greatest blessing. She lived 58 years, but managed to give 100 years of service to those she touched with gentle, empathetic and competent hands. She is preceded in death by her father, Guadalupe Bueno; brothers, Tony and Lupio Bueno. Linda is survived by her husband, Joe Garcia, her mother, Maria Bueno, her five sons, Joe, Steven, John, Andrew, and Jacob Garcia; daughter-in-law, Kate Noll Garcia and 10 very special grandchildren and 4 brothers and 7 sisters who will miss her deeply.

“ I was a brand new teacher out of UT, and Linda took a chance on me. I went to the Northside job fair back in 2001, and it was the mention of Teaching with Love and Logic that clinched it. She knew I would take care of her students. I was young, uncertain, overeager, creative, and completely unprepared for my own classroom (as all fresh-faced first-years are) but she mentored and guided me and gave me a team that mentored and guided me through the rockiest year of my life--not only professionally but personally. She was there for me in so many ways. And when I went off to university for my graduate degree, she told me I always had a job with her when I was ready to work with kids again. I've never known another leader like her. She changed lives. She changed my life.
