

Linda Ann Hunter

April 5, 1949 - October 1, 2011

Linda Ann Klima Hunter, of Federal Way, Washington, was called home to the Lord on the 1st of October, 2011 while visiting family friends in Toronto, Canada. Her last days were filled with the excitement of seeing new sights. She and her husband, Tim, spent their last day together enjoying the beauty of Niagara Falls. Linda was born in 1949 in San Antonio, where she grew up with her brother, Leroy Lee K. Klima. She attended Highlands High School, and was a member of Baptist Temple Church, where she was an active member of the choirs youth to adult. In 1968, she married Paul Timmons Tim Hunter. They were happily married for 43 years. They have one son, Austin Scott Hunter, of Huntsville, Alabama. Linda, a military wife for many years, lived in a number of locales and cultures. She resided in Texas, Louisiana, New Jersey, Arizona, Hawaii, Alaska, Alabama, and Washington State. But in all of her travels, she never lost her "southern drawl". Linda loved Jesus, her family, and all of nature. Her pets were her "babies" and an integral part of family life. Linda was a kindhearted and giving person who appreciated simple pleasures, and thanked God for every new day and all His many blessings. Linda was preceded in death by her mother, Elizabeth Ann Dyer Klima, as well as both sets of grandparents. She is survived by her husband, Paul Timmons Tim Hunter, her son, Austin Scott Hunter, grandchildren, Justin and Harley, her father, Leroy C. Klima, her brother, Leroy Lee K. Klima, and her beloved pets, Coca Puff, China Doll, Picki-Boo, and Tigger, as well as many other family members and friends. Linda will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
