

Lino Ozuna

September 23, 1935 - December 27, 2017

Lino Ozuna, born September 23, 1935, embraced God on December 27, 2017 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 82.

In his lifetime, Lino embodied what an honorable, hard working, respectful, fun loving man, husband, father and grandfather should be. His smile was infectious to those around him, his hug could make you feel wonderful and he could light up a room with his laughter. He was a humble man, who came from a very simple existence, growing up in Laredo, Texas. He shared a very small home with his parents, several brothers and sisters. Though money was scarce, the love of family helped see them through some very rough times.

It was that love for family, respect for others and his strong work ethic that made Lino the man that everyone respected and loved. He was a handsome man, with beautiful red hair, a pale complexion, big smile and a strong handshake. If he gave you his word, it was his bond. He was never more than a phone call away to assist you in whatever task needed being done. Those kinds of men are hard to find, fortunately for his family and friends he gave them his love and affection for over sixty years.

He was honored time and time again for his 30+ years at Via Metropolitan Transit. Lino worked his way up through the ranks from mechanic to Foreman. If you asked him, he was most proud of his work with his Union ATU 694. He believed in social justice, fairness and he stood firmly with the workers he not only supervised but worked besides. He was a mechanic by trade, which allowed him to be the ultimate fix-it man when you needed something done. He shared those talent with friends, family and his church. Lino Ozuna loved his church and his God. He spent thousands of hours volunteering at Our Lady of the Angels Catholic Church. He was well known and respected by the parishioners who knew Lino would always be there to help.

But his true love of over 61 years was his wife Patricia.....they were inseparable. Together they forged a beautiful family of children and grandchildren, brothers, sisters and extended family that numbered over 60. Each and every one of them could not wait to walk over and hug the man they called Lino the Lion Hearted! His presence will be sorely missed, but his soul will continue to provide the warmth and love he so freely gave during his lifetime.

He was preceded in death by his parents Zeferino and Amanda Ozuna; brother Domingo. He is survived by his loving wife of 61 years Patricia; sons George and wife Liz, and Richard and wife Mary Ann; sisters Concepcion and Catalina; brothers Gabino and Juan. He is also survived by grandchildren Mariella, Clarissa, Marcos and Lena; great grandchildren Mateo and Donovan; numerous nieces and nephews. Lino will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

“ Pat, my condolences upon the death of Lino. Have many wonderful memories of him in my association with both of you in COPS. You always were a couple doing the work that Our Lord calls us to do. May he rest in peace and may you find peace in knowing that he is now with Our Lord.
