Tribute Wall

“ My sweet paw paw, you were always full of love and hapiness. Thank you for giving us a such a fun childhood with your charm, sharing your IT knowledge and always showing us up on the golf course. I cherish the memories of the early mornings at the golf course in Lamarque. Driving the golf cart is on of my favorite things I did with you growing up. I am forever grateful to have been loved by you.

“ So very sorry for his passing. Leo was a good man and a loving father. His boys were everything to him and was so very proud of all their accomplishments. My daughter always thought of him as her dad many happy memories. Love to you all.

“ Liovardo was a man who welcomed my wife Betty and I with Texas charm and true hospitality. We had many laughs together and enjoyed watching our grandchildren grow to young adults that we were so proud of that words alone could not even begin to describe how proud we were of all of them. They all have unique qualities and personalities that made us all realize how fortunate we were to have them in our lives. Now Betty and LI have the pleasure of watching over the ones we have left behind only we are free of our broken and tired earthly bodies. It is OK to be sad today but remember that we will all take this same journey and reconnect in heaven to enjoy eternal life with our savior Jesus Christ in a place he has prepared for us. People who know me may be surprised by what I have shared. I don't preach religion but I do try to live a life of faith and love. Rest in peace Liovardo.
