

Lisa Marie Calderon

February 22, 1966 - July 11, 2009

CALDERON

Lisa Marie Calderon, born February 22, 1966, was called to be with the Lord on July 11, 2009 at the age of 43. She is survived by her husband, Daniel Calderon; daughter, Kimberly Calderon; sons, Chase Jones, Dalton Jones, and Daniel Calderon II; sister, Susan Allain; brother-in-law, James Allain; nieces, Allyssa Smith, Ammanda Allain, and Anndria Allain. She will be dearly missed by everyone who knew her. Lisa was a wonderful teacher and worked at Stuebing Elementary School, where she had taught for almost 13 years. She had been teaching for 20 years and loved her work. She was a kind and generous woman who loved everyone and was there to lend a hand and give comfort to anyone that needed it. She had the most beautiful smile and sparkling eyes you have ever seen. She would give you a quick smile and with the twinkle in her eye she had you captivated. She was a friend who asked nothing more than to be in your life and help when she could. She lived in San Antonio for over 20 years after moving here from Kansas. She was an amazing wife and mother. And a wonderful sister, and caring aunt. She will be dearly missed by all who she has touched in her lifetime.

SERVICES

Visitation will begin at 1:00 PM until 3:30 PM on Tuesday, July 14, 2009 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North and will then continue at 5:00 PM at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church, 8500 Cross Mountain Trail. A Rosary will be recited Tuesday night at 7:00 PM at church. Funeral Mass will take place at 10:00 AM on Wednesday, July 15, 2009 at the same church with interment to follow at Mission Burial Park North.
