“ It saddens me to think of the suffering that Lisa has endured over the years. Yet, through it all she cared deeply for her family and often wore a cheerful smile. She was the kind of person who lit up a room and made you glad that she was there.

I first met Lisa as a parent to her precious Kayla that I had the privilege of teaching in the 3rd and 4th grades. Lisa's love and dedication for her children was evident every day. She was one of those mom's who was always willing to go the extra mile to help out. At any school, there are those moms that the teacher's adore. Lisa was one of those moms. That her children were a joy to teach meant that we were all blessed to have them in our lives. Those were such good times.

Later, Lisa joined our Bunco group. We shared so many fun evenings together. I was always happy to see her. I loved hearing tales of Royce and Kayla. She was so proud of them. I hated when her health made it impossible for her to continue playing. She battled long and hard. What an incredible warrior! I know she wanted to treasure as many moments with her husband, children and grandchildren as possible. Still, death came much, much too soon.

This Thanksgiving, I will praise God for the blessing that Lisa was to all of us. I know she will be sorely missed by all who love her.

“ My most sincere condolences Lisa’s family. My most vivid memory of Lisa is from when she was dating Steve. They were so in love and would sit in Aunt Helen and Uncle Paul’s den and talk and kiss. What a beautiful family they created and I know you will all miss her greatly.

Take care,
