

Lisa Marie Dupuis

May 29, 1961 - January 15, 2012

Lisa Johnson Dupuis of San Antonio, TX passed from this life at her home, surrounded by her family & very dear friends on Saturday, January 15th, 2012 at age 50. All who knew her will agree that her illness had a long battle with her, not the other way around. A petroleum engineer's daughter, she was born on May 29, 1961 in Levelland, TX. The oil industry also took her family from Lubbock, Fort Worth, Andrews, and finally to Pampa, TX where she graduated with the Class of 1979. After high school, she received a B.A. in Psychology at UT Arlington, a B.S. in Nursing at Lamar State University, and a Master of Science in Nursing from UT Medical Branch at Galveston. She practiced as a Cardiac Nurse Practitioner at the UT Health Science Center in San Antonio under the direction of Dr. ManojPanday, for whom she had the greatest respect.

She is preceded in death by her father, Robert Nase Johnson and survived by her mother, Jimmie Jean Bomparte Johnson of San Antonio, her sister & brother-in-law, Ann & Don Lievrouw, niece & nephew Leah Grace & Joseph Dell all of Helotes, her beloved companion, Greg Sandford and his sons, Berkley & Houston of San Antonio. "Aunt SaSa" is also survived by many dear & loyal lifelong friends, her precious "YaYas", and adored pets, Bennie, Noel and Taylor. Memorial services will be held on Thursday, January 19th at 10:30am at Oak Hills Presbyterian Church. In lieu of flowers, Lisa has designated that memorials be made to Oak Hills Presbyterian Church in gratitude to Rev. Katheryn Barlow Williams for her superb pastoral care & the many prayers of Church members.
