

Lita Lee Inclan

Inclan; parents, George and Maria Gray; brothers, Joseph Gray and Pershing Gray; son-in-law, Todd Hilderbrand and great-grandson, Travis Fenn. Lita is survived by her loving children, Sandra Miller (Daniel, Sr.), Araceli I. Garza (Roger), Gabriel Inclan, III (Yvonne) and Diana Hilderbrand; sisters, Rose Mills (Jerry), Pearl Davila (Juan) and Madeline Ybarbo (Nicholas); sister-in-law, Raquel Gray; 10 grandchildren, Heidi Fenn (Todd, Sr.), Daniel Miller, Jr. (Claudia), Marisa Inclan, Christina Brennan (Eric), Frances Bunde (Mark), Ryan Miller (Rebecca), Derek Hilderbrand, Jake Hilderbrand, Gabriel Hilderbrand and Gavin Hilderbrand; 7 great-grandchildren, Todd Fenn, Jr., Thomas Michael Fenn, Anaya Williams, Peighton Brennan, Jameson Brennan, Caroline Miller and Cash Miller; 1 great-grandson on the way, Gabriel Malakai Hilderbrand, and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Lita had a vibrant personality and was always the life of the party! She loved her Spurs and Cowboys and loved watching games with her grandsons! She loved her senior center, when they closed for covid, she missed it so much. She and her hubby of over 60 years loved to dance. We know they're dancing up above. Her health had been deteriorating for some time, but she died peacefully and went home to be with Jesus, because she had accepted Him in her heart years ago. The family would like to give a special thanks to her caregivers, Lupita and Norma with the Blue Angles Home, for their care and compassion.

Julianna Jacobs: daughter of Madeline. Lita was my aunt. The stories of sneaking into movies one of my happy memories of aunt Lita. I remember her making sandwiches at her house before we even left for the theater (at McCreless). And the canned sodas we would bring. always making sure to wait for a loud moment before opening them. I send my love and prayers to you all
