“ Words always seem empty at a time like this.. Growing up with Logan and Thomas. You never think such a time like this will come to be.. Every time I think about Logan. The first thing that comes to mine is his laugh.

It always brings a smile through the tears..he was the perfect example of a "country boy" ! Growing up, I remember our Friday nights after school. We would all load up in that green truck of Mr. Marvin's and mischievous and head out to caliveras Lake with the Canoe..or the nights we gathered to watch Dukes of Hazard or Battlestar Galactica..summer vacation we'd be playing spades or maybe a pool tournament,a found memory was those tournaments on that small pool table in the back yard...those are memories I cherish the most with this country boy I called friend! I can still hear that giggle so clear! Miss judy,Thomas,Roxanne and to his kids and grandkids I am so very sorry;I pray God's peace will carry you each through this hard time..I know Logan is with Jesus so there is comfort there and by trusting Jesus we can and will be reunited one day...please live each day to the fullest with no regrets; love those around you,let them know how important they are to you...Rest in peace country boy,my friend. Your friend and brother in Christ,Dean Coburn and family, john14:6
