

Lois Ann Bourne

February 2, 1961 - May 21, 2025

Lois Ann (Ferguson) Bourne, a beloved wife, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, friend, and faithful follower of Christ, passed away at her residence in Abilene, Texas, on May 21, 2025. She was born on February 2, 1961, in Mountain Home, Idaho, and spent parts of her early childhood in Colorado and Japan before settling in San Antonio, Texas, where she lived most of her life.

Lois's greatest joy was staying connected with the people she loved. Known for her infectious smile and genuine warmth, Lois never met a stranger; every conversation quickly blossomed into friendship. She exemplified Christ's love through her thoughtful calls and constant outreach, always checking in on those she loved.

Throughout her life, Lois served others. She worked alongside her late mother as a school crossing guard and joyfully volunteered in church nurseries, caring for children with tenderness and delight. Both Leon Valley Baptist Church and Bible Baptist Church in San Antonio held special places in her heart, fostering lifelong friendships.

Among Lois's proudest and most cherished moments was her marriage to Phillip Bourne on September 23, 2006. She often spoke of how much she valued their time together, and the happiness they shared remained one of her most treasured memories.

Lois also had a playful and nurturing spirit. She adored cats and kept a beloved collection of cat dolls, toys, and figurines. Her nieces and nephews fondly remember how she would take them to the nearby Icehouse, always treating them to snacks. They also spent hours together playing games like The Game of Life and mini pool—simple joys that reflected her deep love for family and fun.

Lois is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Phillip Bourne, and her parents, Waymond Ferguson and Eileen Tegethoff. She is survived by her sister, Carolyn Moore (Gary); brother, Paul Ferguson; nieces, Kristyn Reed (Michael) and Kathleen Poeschl (Colton); nephews, Jonathan Moore (Angeline), Brandon Moore (Kim), and Ryan Ferguson; great-niece, Bethany Reed; great-nephews, Nathanael Reed and Walker Poeschl; and her many cousins, aunts, and uncles in Arkansas and Idaho, all of whom she loved dearly.

Lois's legacy of friendship, kindness, and faith will continue to inspire all who knew her. Her favorite Bible verse, John 3:16, captures the love and faith by which she lived her life: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

SERVICES

Visitation will be held on Thursday, May 29, 2025, from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm, with an evening service at 6:00 pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A Graveside Service will follow on Friday, May 30, 2025, at 9:00 am at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery, where she will be laid to rest alongside her husband, who—like her father—honorably served in the U.S. Air Force.

In lieu of flowers, please consider performing an act of kindness or reaching out to someone in Lois's memory. For personal acknowledgments, please sign the online guestbook at www.missionparks.com in the Tributes section.

“ Lois was a childhood friend over 50 plus years ago and our families were the best of friends. I can't recall how many nights I spent at the Ferguson household! Countless memories all filled with smiles and laughter, she never met a stranger! Up to this year she continued to wish my kids happy birthday, and spoke to everyone! I just wish I would've been the one to have kept in better touch!

“ My life forever changed when I met this bright, beautiful soul at Restoring His Way Feast of Sukkot 2018 in Wewoka, OK, we hit it off from the very beginning & have been great friends since. I have already missed sending my weekly Sabbath texts to her, as she really enjoyed getting them, as much as I loved sending them. She always had the best smile & oh how I'm going to miss her BIG hugs & conversations.

Abba broke the mold when HE created you, Lois! Thank you for sharing your joy, light, hope & life with me! I love & miss you. Next year in Jerusalem!

“ I met Louis for the first time at feast of tabernacles in wewoka Oklahoma last year. She always had a smile on her face. She loved to laugh and be part of the conversations going on around her. She will be missed by so many. She was a inspiration to me and gave me hope for a better tomorrow. May she rest in peace and until we meet again at Yahshua feet. Lois u just changed worlds and so will we all some day. Praying for comfort and shalom during this difficult time in every one's life. Thanks for the smile u shared on earth. U will have the best feast of tabernacles this year. Love u and miss u sis.
