

Lois Lane Forsyth

August 16, 1928 - February 23, 2024

Lois Lane Forsyth died February 23, 2024, after living a wonderful 95 years. She was born Lilly Lois Elizabeth Lane on August 16th, 1928, in San Antonio, Texas.

After graduating from Fox Tech Vocational High School, she spent many years working for the U.S. Civil Service. In the early 1950s, her husband's Army career moved their young family to various U.S. duty stations. In 1956, the Army stationed Lois and her family in Bad Tölz, Germany. This location opened a whole new world of sightseeing opportunities, allowing her to visit greater Europe, sparking a lifelong passion for travel.

Upon her return from Germany, Lois began a long, rewarding career with Trinity University in San Antonio. Beginning as a secretary, she spent over 30 years working across multiple departments, ascending to the administrator level. Her retirement in 1997 afforded her the opportunity to indulge her love of travel, spanning multiple countries with her family and friends.

Later in her life, Lois was a proud member of the Holy Spirit Catholic Church, where she sang in the choir. Lois was an avid gardener, with a green thumb that nurtured several species of flowers, bushes and vines around her home. She was also a fervent movie watcher, accompanying her dear friends to countless premieres and showings.

Lois is survived by her children Sharon Matthey and husband William, Robert Forsyth and wife

Rhonda, Evelyn Herrera and husband Tom, Charlotte Forsyth-Perez and husband Noe, and Lanette Forsyth; grandchildren Michael, Bryan, Scott, Sherri, Sean, Frank, Cory, Shelly, Stacey,

Jennifer, Jordan and Allison, 15 great-grandchildren, 1 great-great-grandchild, sister Jeanette Bayonne and brother William Smith. She is preceded in death by her mother Josephine Sarrau, father William Alfred Lane, grandson Kyle Forsyth and brother Raymond Lane.

A visitation will take place at Mission Parks Funeral Chapel North, Thursday February 29 6PM - 8PM. Funeral service will take place at Mission Parks
North, Friday, March 1, 10:00 AM. Interment to follow at Sunset Memorial Cemetery.

Special thanks are given to Embrace Hospice & Home Health in Kerrville for their care of Lois during her final months.

“ Hi Mom, I know you are in Heaven and can only imagine how wonderful that is for you. I wish I could talk with you. I miss you, your voice and laughter. I like to think (hope) that even though you've gone home you are aware of the impact your wisdom has had on me, perhaps, especially since you went home. I still have those "Mom" moments with nature, especially with birds, and find simple joy and comfort, too. I think of you all the time Mom. I miss and Love you, Lanette

“ Hi Mom, next month will be a year. I miss you. It's still hard to believe you are not a call or visit away but in Heaven. I'm so touched and thankful that when I've needed it most, unexpectedly, you'll come to mind or I'll hear your voice or in combination see signs especially with actions of birds/nature. God has His ways of allowing and bringing comfort. Heaven is just more beautiful with you there. I love you and miss you. Your daughter, Lanette

“ Hi Mom, it's going on three months. I miss you. I am grateful as I can hear the sound of your voice and your laugh; it was very distinctive. I look at your pictures often. I am doing pretty good. Life has changed so much Mom. I love you. Thank you for everything ... your love, wisdom and strength is beyond admirable. Your loving daughter, Lanette

“ My mother was a gracious, classy woman who exuded elegance. Her love for her family, not just children, but her siblings and neices and nephews, grandchildren on down the line was bigger than life. Her soft voice passed on many nuggets of wisdom. It was a blessing to be involved in her care. She impacted many lives and she will be greatly missed. Rest peacefully. You have earned it. I love you mom.
