

Lois Margaret Hughes Hicklin Farley

February 19, 1916 - April 29, 2006

Lois Margaret Hughes Hicklin Farley, age 90, passed away on April 29, 2006 in Lubbock, Texas after a very brief illness. She was born on February 19, 1916 in San Antonio and was a resident until January 2004. She was married 30 years to the love of her life, Carl L. Hicklin, Jr. She graduated from Brackenridge High School. Lois was very involved in her church which she loved, Manor Baptist that became First Mexican Baptist Church, where she taught children's Sunday School for many years and was active in her Anna Sunday School Class. She became a talented artist in her later years. Lois' ministry was the gift of outreach as she remembered all who came into her life with greeting cards, letters and phone calls to celebrate or recognize any occasion. She was a very loving mother who demonstrated her love with countless acts of caring for her family and her abundant joy of being a mom. Having been a blessing to others all of her life, she received the ultimate of blessings at the end of her journey; sharpness of mind, faith in her Lord, and the love of others. She was preceded in death by her husband, Carl L. Hicklin, Jr.; parents, Leycester and A. Gertrude Hughes; sister, Doris Hughes Levine; and cousins, Elisabeth Blount and Emily Lee Oglesby. She is survived by three daughters, Carole Beth Arnette and husband David of Price, Utah, Bonnie Dee Martin and her husband Wes of Lubbock and Marsha Lee Sagebiel of San Antonio; granddaughters, Susan Arnette of Price, Utah, Christie Soder and her husband James of Hale Center, Beth Martin of Lubbock, and Carly Sagebiel of San Antonio; great-grandchildren, Jonathan and Bethany Soder; brother, Edward J. Hughes and his wife Loretta of Canyon Lake; brother-in-law, Joe S. Levine of Houston; and nieces and nephews, Patrick Hughes, Larry Hughes, Les Hughes, Susan Levine, and Charles Levine.
