

Lois E. Reeder

October 27, 1924 - October 4, 2016

Lois Reeder went to be with her lord and savior and was reunited with her husband of 61 years Harold Reeder on Tuesday, October 4, 2016 just short of her 92nd birthday. Mom had been a widow for 12 years after Harold's passing in 2004. She is survived by seven children, sixteen grandchildren, and ten great grandchildren. “ The smell of biscuits and coffee remind me of Grandma's house...climbing that tree outside the back door, drawing pictures on the chalkboard in the hallway, sawdust, ice cold orange crush soda in a glass bottle...her famous Green Bean Casserole, her powdery perfume. All these things, these smells and tastes, experiences, remind me of her but most of all, her love. It was unconditional. It was ever forgiving. It was always thinking of your best interest. It was always hopeful. I'm so honored to have had her as my Grandma. You set the bar high, Grandma!

Yes, all the above is true and she loved the Estee Lauder powder & perfumes.. Many fond memories of climbing the trees, the sawdust from the shop, the bench swing in the back yard, holding the babies with Mom, and unconditional love. For me, one of my best memories is the smell of pot roast when we came home from church on most Sundays. Never a worry about having clean clothes to wear or food to eat..Mom always took care of us all. She is an amazing woman.

“ She is greatly loved and admired and will be greatly missed. She's also left a hole in our new SASSI group. Glad she's home with Jesus.
