

Lola Sanchez Day

November 5, 1924 - September 22, 2017

Lola Sanchez Day was born November 5, 1924 in Floresville, Texas. She arrived with her twin sister Mary. Her parents were Louis Sanchez and Juliana Navarro. Lola was baptized on January 10, 1925 at Blessed Sacrament Church in Poth, Texas. Lola attended church in San Antonio at Saint Joseph Catholic Church. Lola met Lee Day in downtown San Antonio while walking down Houston St. A conversation was struck which was the beginning of a beautiful union. Lee and Lola were married on December 11, 1957. Lee affectionately called her Dolores. Lola worked at White Star Dry Cleaners for thirty plus years in San Antonio, becoming a manager. Her boss gifted her a rod and reel for her fishing hobby upon retirement. She also worked diligently at the Texaco Service Station that Lee and she owned. Hard work and cheerfulness are qualities Lola carried with her. Her house was clean and spotless. You could never call her lazy! Three words that summarize her character are hardworking, loyal and happy. Lola is survived by Lee of Ft Worth, Texas, Mary of San Antonio, Texas and numerous nieces and nephews.
